HONGKONG, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1882.

UNION INSURANCE SOCIETY OF CANTON, LIMITED.

An extraordinary meeting of shareholders was held at the Society's office at 3.15 yesterday afternoon. There were present:—Hon. P. Ryrie, (Chairman); Messrs. H. Hop-plus, F. D. Sassoon, H. L. Dalrymple, W. H. F. Darby, Hon. F. B. Johnson, (Directors); A. Coxon, D. McCulloch, J. A. dos Remedios, H. Foss, C. Holliday, W. Reiners, H. G. James, J. T. Chater, T. Jackson, J. H. Cox, A. da Silva, C. D. Bottomley, J. P. McEuen, A. Wemyss, J. D. Hutchinson, A. G. Morris, T. G. Williamson, C. U. Stuart, Douglas Jones (Acting Secretary), and W. Wotton (Solicitor).

The Chairman said—Gentlemen, I now rise to lay before you a resolution as to the articles of association of the Society, and its constitution.

This resolution has been before you for some time and also before the shareholders in London and other parts of the globe, and I may say the proposed changes have met with almost universal approbation from the shareholders.

Their object, I think, must be clear to every one who has watched the course of business in China of late years. The limitation of the Company, as a matter of course, calls for the augmentation of the value of the shares. Therefore we now propose to increase it to $5,000 a share. The proposal to sub-divide the shares into four, I think is also called for. The shares have now arrived at such a value as to have become unwieldy, and to induce business it is an advantage very often to have shares of a smaller denomination. With reference to increasing the lines to be taken by the company, in deference to the wishes expressed by shareholders in London we have altered the resolution, as laid before you. We now propose to stick to $150,000 as a maximum, but with a provision that the directors shall be at liberty to exceed the said sum and immediately reimburse the amount in excess. We have added words to that effect to clause 129, and that is the only change that is now proposed to be made, in that respect. As to clause 137, with reference to the reserve-fund, you will all admit that with the change in the constitution of the Society, it will be of very great importance to make up that fund to a considerable amount as quickly as possible. The clause with reference to the interim dividend I think you will all approve of; it is one that has now been adopted by almost all other companies. The power given by Nos. 139 and 140 I think is also one that will benefit the Society. By No. 140 of our present articles of association we are prohibited from a number of investments that are desirable. For one instance, we are unable to invest in Chinese bonds, and this alteration is proposed to enable us to do so.

The Chairman was proceeding to move a resolution embodying all the alterations proposed, when the Hon. F. B. Johnson suggested that it would be better to move a separate resolution with respect to each alteration, as some members might object to one or other of the proposals, while approving of the remainder, and that would necessitate the moving of amendments.

Mr. Holliday seconded.

The course suggested was then adopted.

Mr. Sassoon proposed—

That the articles of association be amended by the elimination of article 129 and substituting in lieu thereof the following:—

"The capital of the Society shall consist of $1,500,000, and shall be divided into 300 shares of $5,000 each, to be paid at the time of issue in the manner hereinafter provided. The Society may from time to time by special resolution previously come to at an ordinary or extraordinary meeting increase the capital by the issue of new shares or by increasing the value of the present shares of $5,000 each to shares of such value or amount as the Society by such special resolution may determine, the aggregate of such increase to be of such amount and to be divided into such respective sums as the Society in such meeting may direct."

Mr. Holliday seconded.

Mr. Wotton, at the request of the Chairman, explained that by the present articles the members had only power by a special resolution to increase the capital by the issue of new shares. It was now desired to extend that power, and at a subsequent meeting a resolution would be proposed increasing the capital to $2,500,000 by increasing the value of each share to $5,000. The present resolution was only one step towards the attainment of the object in view.

The resolution was carried.

Mr. Hoppius proposed—

That the articles of association be amended by the elimination of article 30 and substituting in lieu thereof the following:—

"The Board may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Society previously given in meeting, sub-divide the existing shares of the Society into shares of such amount as the meeting shall direct, in accordance with Ordinance of 1877."

Mr. Holliday seconded.

Carried unanimously.

Mr. Dalrymple proposed—

That the articles of association be amended by the elimination of article 129 and substituting in lieu thereof the following:—

"The limits for insurance upon the block of any one ship or vessel, other than vessels propelled by steam, shall be $40,000, and upon one or more vessels propelled by steam shall be $100,000, and upon one or more ships or vessels taken together $200,000, and upon steam vessels $300,000, up to ships or vessels, whether propelled by steam or sail, and whether by steam or machinery on board such ships or vessels taken together $500,000. Nevertheless, the directors shall be at liberty to exceed the above sum or sums and shall immediately reimburse the excess."

Mr. Johnson seconded.

Hon. F. B. Johnson proposed—

That the articles of association be amended by the elimination of article 129 and substituting in lieu thereof the following:—

"The limits for insurance upon the block of any one ship or vessel, other than vessels propelled by steam, shall be $40,000, and upon one or more vessels propelled by steam shall be $100,000, and upon one or more ships or vessels taken together $200,000, and upon steam vessels $300,000, up to ships or vessels, whether propelled by steam or sail, and whether by steam or machinery on board such ships or vessels taken together $500,000. Nevertheless, the directors shall be at liberty to exceed the above sum or sums and shall immediately reimburse the excess."

to his amendment words to the effect that the other members of the Society (not reserve or capital) might be dealt with as proposed.

Mr. Holliday expressed his readiness to make such an addition.

Hon. F. B. Johnson remarked that if the earnings of the Society were distributed as quickly as it was hoped they would be, there would be very little money to invest, if the amendment were carried, even in such a desirable security as he believed Chinese bonds to be.

On a show of hands the amendment was lost.

Mr. Holliday asked for a ballot.

The result of the ballot was that there were six votes for the amendment and thirty-one against, and it was consequently declared lost.

The original motion was then put.

Mr. Darby said that as the holder of proxies he must still demand a ballot.

After some little conversation, Mr. Darby and Mr. Holliday expressed their willingness that a show of hands should be taken, Mr. Darby stating that he held three proxies.

The resolution was then put and carried.

This concluded the business.

The Chairman read an advertisement to be inserted in the papers (and which will be found in another column) calling a meeting for Saturday, 11th November, at 12 o'clock, to confirm the resolutions passed at the present meeting.

SOCIALISM IN FRANCE.

It is officially stated that a vast socialist revolutionary movement is taking place in France.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE Douglas came out of Aberdeen Dock today, and the Durham will dock there to-morrow morning.

We read in the Shanghai Mercury that the British gunboat Swift arrived there on the 22nd inst., from Chefoo. The British ironclad Iron Duke left Woosung on the same day.

We hear that the officers and members of Royal Arch Chapter No. 1341, have decided to raise an individual subscription, with the object of presenting Companion the honorary Scribe E. J. Parker of that Chapter, with a Past Scribe E. S. Jewel, on his enforced resignation, on account of ill health, of his position of honorary Scribe E., and in consideration of the valuable services rendered by him in the formation of the Chapter. It is proposed to send the Jewel to Companion Parker's mother Chapter No. 784, Deal, Kent (Mr. Parker being about to proceed home on 12 months' leave), with a request that the M. E. Z. of that Chapter present it to him in regular convocation, on behalf of Chapter No. 1341.

THE case in which a married woman was charged on the 25th inst. with bringing a girl aged 16 years into the Colony for an unlawful purpose, was on again yesterday, before Captain Thomsett, when, in continuation of her defence, the defendant said she should sell the girl to any one wanting a wife, and that she did not intend to sell her for purposes of prostitution. The girl said she wanted to return to her father, and that she would not be a prostitute if required to be one. A Chinaman, on behalf of the Po Lung Kuk or Anti-kidnapping Society, appeared and undertook to take charge of the girl and send her back to her father. The prisoner was discharged. The girl's inhuman father, who made merchandise of his unfortunate daughter ten years ago, will, no doubt, be glad to have her back; so that he may again trade in her.

A CORRESPONDENT in Chuo Ying writes us as follows:—The seizure of the Dai-In-Kun was a well executed affair; up to the present time I have not seen a true account of it in any of the papers. The fact is he was seized in the Palace at Seoul, and Admiral Ting and 100 of our marines brought him down to the coast. Leaving Seoul at 8 p.m. they reached our anchorage at noon next day, only taking 16 hours to get over 43 miles by night over a most hilly country, and by way, as they purposely avoided the public ways in case of an attempt at a rescue. The Queen is all right too; she had been in hiding in a village a few miles from the capital. At first her death was believed in, and the people were mourning for her for a fortnight, but on the 2nd day of the 8th moon, about four weeks ago, she made a public entry into Seoul amidst great rejoicing. We are getting lots of sickness over here amongst the Chinese and Japanese. The disease which has broken out is called "Kak Koo" and is something like diphtheria; several deaths have already resulted from the above complaint.

MR. E. Miller, an assistant in Messrs. Siemens & Co.'s, was summoned by two chair coolies to the Police Court this morning for unlawfully refusing to pay them their legal fare. The complainants stated that the defendant engaged their chair at 9 a.m. on the 26th inst. at Messrs. Siemens's, from which they took him to the Government Civil Hospital, arriving back with their fare at 11 o'clock. He offered them to cents, and refusing to take it, he then offered only five, so they summoned him—Defendant said he engaged the chair at 9 o'clock and stayed at the hospital only five minutes, coming straight back, save a stoppage at the Medical Hall of from 3 to 4 minutes, and arriving at Messrs. Siemens's before 9 o'clock. He gave them to cents, and as they refused it, he told them they should only have five, as he was annoyed. Mr. Wodehouse very properly ordered the defendant to pay 20 cents to the coolies as their legal fare, and an additional 25 cents to each for the trouble occasioned them. What surprises us is that any respectable European could have the conscience to offer ten cents to two chair bearers for carrying him from Messrs. Siemens & Co.'s to the Government Civil Hospital and back.

AN INQUEST has been ordered for this afternoon on the body of a Chinese male adult, which was found floating in the harbour at West Point this morning. The body was in a decomposed state, and presented the appearance of death from drowning.

We learn from the Shanghai Mercury that an enquiry by naval officers was held at the General Hospital on the 23rd inst., as to the recent riot on the Yang-king-pang between British and German men-of-war's men. The wounded men in Hospital were examined as to the occurrence, but the enquiry being private, we are unable to state what sort of evidence was given.

THE APPREHENDED ATTACK ON KOWLOON CITY BY MEMBERS OF THE TRIAD SOCIETY.

The Brigade Major has forwarded us, for publication, the following copy of a Garrison Order issued in reference to the apprehended attack on Kowloon City by members of the Triad Society. It incorporates what we wrote yesterday as to the object for which the troops were sent to Kowloon on Thursday night, and is intended, no doubt, to correct the misleading and silly nonsense published by the Daily Press on the subject in its issue of 26th inst. We congratulate the military authorities upon having such efficient supply Departments as the Commissariat and Ordnance Departments here have proved themselves to be:—

BRIGADE OFFICE.

Hongkong, 27th October, 1882.

2.—Movement of Troops.—His Excellency the Major General Commanding received last evening from His Excellency the Administrator a request to be ready the same night to support the Police in the event of an attack upon Kowloon by the Triad Society.

The information given was, that if the Triad Society, a powerful and aggressive combination, failed in its attack on the Chinese City of Kowloon, they might turn their attention to buildings in British Territory.

It is a very easy matter to send troops to Kowloon at any hour of the night, but what the General desires to record is, that without the slightest foreknowledge on the part of any one in the Garrison that any assistance would be required, last night after all the work people belonging to the Commissariat and Ordnance Departments had dispersed to their homes or elsewhere, the boats and necessary transport for the men, guns, tents and everything requisite for camping at Kowloon, were all ready nearly as quickly as if the order had been given during the day. This reflects great credit on all concerned, and especially on Assistant Commissary General Meyer and Assistant Commissary General of Ordnance Murray, and those under their command. Indeed, the General, thinking that the Commissariat men could not be so readily found

The Congress was busily occupied in all its departments in reading and discussing papers. The inaugural address for the day was that of Mr. Bristowe, O.C. "On Jurisprudence and the Amendment of the Law." He advocated, as reforms still to be sought, an effective Rivers Pollution Prevention Act, the codification of our law, the remedying of defects in our Jury System, the conferring of greater privileges upon accused persons, the Amendment in the Law of Mortmain, an improvement in respect to the trial of ecclesiastical causes, the abolition of the sale of new presentations, an Amendment of the Law of Bankruptcy, and that real estate should be dealt with in the same way as personal in case of intestacy. The last-named subject was discussed at some length in the Municipal Law Section.

Messrs. Scott and Co., Greenock, launched from their yard at Carlsdyke on the 19th inst. a finely-modelled screw steamer of 1,700 tons register and 200-horse power nominal. The dimensions are—272 feet long, 35 feet broad, and 23 feet 6 inches deep. She is a sister steamer to the Wanpao, whose launch by the same firm we recently reported. On leaving the ways the vessel was named the Wanpao. Her owners are Messrs. John Swire and Sons, London, and she is intended to augment their fleet for the China trade. The vessel is now being prepared for sea in the East India Harbour at Greenock. This steamer is the fourth of six boats that have been contracted for by Messrs. Scott and Co. with Messrs. John Swire and Sons. The following is a complete list of the same—The Chungking, 1,200 tons, has already arrived out in China, and the Wanpao, of the same dimensions, is now on her outward voyage. The other four vessels are each of 1,700 tons. The Wanpao is now loading, the Wanpao launched, and the Taiwan and Chung Chow are being built.

The Chungking, a double-end composite gun-vessel, 950 tons, 1,040-horse power, was commissioned on the 19th inst., at Chatham, by Commander Harris, with a crew of 82 officers and men, for the China station. Commander Charles Reynold Harris passed for a cadetship 16th October, 1856, and was first aloft in the Colossus, Captain Thompson. He was appointed a midshipman to the Warrior in September, 1861, was promoted sub-lieutenant in November, 1862, and in the following year joined the Revenge, flagship of Admiral Smart in the Channel Squadron. As lieutenant, a rank he obtained in November, 1864, he served in the Mediterranean Squadron in 1865, and was then appointed to the Vanguard, flagship of the late Lord Dalmahoy, under whom he served on the South-east Coast of America. From February, 1868, to 1869 he served as lieutenant of the Implacable, training ship for boys, at Devonport. After doing duty in the Black Prince he was employed as first lieutenant of the Volage, Captain Culme-Seymour, with the Detached Squadron, from July, 1870, to 1872, and he has subsequently served in command of the Rocket, gun-vessel in the Pacific, from September, 1874, to January, 1879, coming home on promotion to his commission as commander.

Sir David Wedderburn, till recently M.P. for the Haddington District of Burghs, died on the 18th inst. at Inveresk Lodge, Musselburgh, the residence of his brother-in-law, General Hope. He had been in ill-health for a considerable time, but about ten days ago had a severe attack of hæmorrhage of the lungs, from which he never rallied. Born at Bombay in 1835, the deceased was the eldest surviving son of Sir John, the second baronet, whom he succeeded in 1862. Sir David was educated at Trinity College, Cambridge, where he graduated B.A. in 1858. He was called to the Scottish Bar in 1861, but never practised. He travelled a great deal, visiting India, Australia, China, Japan, and the United States. Sir David also took great interest in several of our far off colonies, such as Ceylon, and occasionally Hongkong. His name appeared on the records of the House of Commons, whenever any question was on referring to the former colony. He represented South Ayrshire in Parliament in the Liberal interest from December, 1868, to February, 1874, and the Haddington District of Burghs from 1879 till his retirement in August last on account of the state of his health. About the beginning of this year he paid a visit to South Africa. The deceased never having married, the title now passes to his brother, Mr. William Wedderburn, who was born in 1838, and is now a judge of the first grade at Ahmednagar.

While the Jeronist section of the Bonapartists were holding a meeting to denounce the newspapers, the Pays and the Petit Caporal, the opposition party forced an entrance into the hall. The feud between the two sections is becoming very intense. Republicans are delighted at these dissensions among their enemies.

THE AMERICAN SCHOONER TRANSIT, reported seized at Cape Gracias a Dios, Nicaragua, was captured by revolutionists, who hoped they could thus capture San Juan Del Norte, generally called Greytown. A man named Emeliano Herrera seized the town, and declared himself "Chief of the Provisional Government of the Atlantic Coast," and under his authorization the schooner Transit was seized. She was subsequently recaptured by Captain Thompson and his men, and the rebels carried to Bluefield, Nicaragua, and delivered into the custody of the United States Consul. After the Transit left Cape Gracias a Dios the popular rose against the rebels, seized them, executed the two leaders, Emeliano Herrera and Miguel Cienra, and thus peace was at once restored. The Consul took the prisoners delivered to him by Captain Thompson to Georgetown and turned them over to the Nicaraguan Government of that port, who in turn sent them to Granada, where they now are in prison awaiting trial.

CAIRO, September 27th.
The Ministers to-day agreed upon 3 decrees, which the Khedive will sign to-morrow. The first decree institutes a special commission for the prosecution of all acts of rebellion committed by the military or civilians. The commission will consist of nine members and be under the presidency of Ismail Bey. The second orders a court-martial with eight members, Rouf Pasha presiding, to be held in Cairo, and that it shall give judgment according to the military code without appeal, in all cases submitted to the above named commission. The third directs the assembling in Alexandria of another court-martial to try all cases submitted by the tribunals recently appointed in Alexandria and Toulah. Proceedings of both courts-martial will be public and the accused will be permitted to employ counsel. The Khedive will shortly issue a decree granting amnesty to all officers, from Captains downward, engaged in the rebellion, excepting those who participated in the riots or joined the army since the beginning of the campaign.

LONDON, September 27th.
Fawcett, Postmaster-General, speaking on the Egyptian question, says England has no selfish object. Her chief concern is to secure to the Egyptians the best government and the greatest amount of liberty possible. The abuses connected with the late control would be avoided in the future. Egyptians would not have to submit to the injustice of an unduly large part of the revenues being appropriated by foreign officials.

BERLIN, September 27th.

THE SOCIAL SCIENCE CONGRESS.
—ADDRESS BY SIR JOHN POPE HENNESSY.

Sir John Pope Hennessy, as chairman of the Repression of Crime Section of the Jurisprudence Department, opened the business of this section yesterday by an address in which he discoursed principally on State-created crime. By this he meant the increase of crime due to the severe machinery for its repression. The results of the disinclination of the branding and deporting system prevailing in Hongkong before his arrival had, he said, been entirely encouraging. In the opinion of Sir John, the State-created crime, State-created crime, he said, is the little colony under my government one million sterling changes hands every month in the article of opium. But with commercial activity and trade profits there comes an increase of crime from opium, from its consumption, and from its smuggling. Hongkong wages a chronic opium war on a small scale with China. A desperate class of men, the opium smugglers, make the colony the base of their operations; they purchase cannon and ammunition there; they fit out heavily-armed junks, and engage within sight of the island in naval battles with the revenue cruiser of the Emperor of China. For the last few years I have had opportunities of meeting some of the leading statesmen of China. Their great complaint against the opium traffic is that it causes immorality and crime. During the five years that I have been responsible to the Queen for the good order of her colonies in the China Seas, I have constantly observed that whilst opium smoking may not injure the physique of some individuals, it invariably deteriorates the moral character and increases crime. The crime arising from opium smoking is not easy to repress. It is had enough to have to deal with it in our own colonies. But the responsibility of creating and spreading such crime in a nation of three hundred millions against the earnestly expressed wishes of the Empress Regent and her Ministers, and, indeed, the wishes of the whole literati of China, is a responsibility that I trust England may soon be able to shake off.

THE AMERICAN SCHOONER TRANSIT, reported seized at Cape Gracias a Dios, Nicaragua, was captured by revolutionists, who hoped they could thus capture San Juan Del Norte, generally called Greytown. A man named Emeliano Herrera seized the town, and declared himself "Chief of the Provisional Government of the Atlantic Coast," and under his authorization the schooner Transit was seized. She was subsequently recaptured by Captain Thompson and his men, and the rebels carried to Bluefield, Nicaragua, and delivered into the custody of the United States Consul. After the Transit left Cape Gracias a Dios the popular rose against the rebels, seized them, executed the two leaders, Emeliano Herrera and Miguel Cienra, and thus peace was at once restored. The Consul took the prisoners delivered to him by Captain Thompson to Georgetown and turned them over to the Nicaraguan Government of that port, who in turn sent them to Granada, where they now are in prison awaiting trial.

Dr. Anice d'Arce, one of the richest and most highly educated Bolivians, has been elected President of the Bolivian Congress. He is a staunch advocate of peace at any price.

The Great Eastern Railway handicap was won by Lorillard's Aranza; Hornpipe second, War-horn third. The betting against Aranza at the start was 20 to 1. She won by six lengths.

De Lesseps, regarding the proposed second canal, writes, that his company possesses, for ninety-nine years the exclusive (this is absurd.—Ed. H.A. Telegraph) privilege of maritime communication between the Gulf of Pelusium and the Bay of Suez.

The Times says it entertains grave doubts as to the validity of the claim.
